Formally Inaugurating the Kid Glove Season of 1914-15 in Richmond With Fresh, New Importations of World-Famous

Roeckl's Kid Gloves

(For Women and Misses)

A month, or even two weeks, ago what human mind could have foreseen the good fortune to us and our patrons this remarkable trade achievement has brought about? We confess to forebodings of a season, or longer, during which we would fall far short of supplying the usual big demand on us for foreign Gloves, and the outlook was anything but encouraging.

This Big Importation of Roeckl's Gloves Is Timely

For to-day—September the 17th—the Glove Store of Richmond is glad to announce that its Kid Glove Department is again ready, completely stocked to fill every demand the fall and winter season may make.

Women's and Misses' Kid Gloves of Highest Quality, in the season's correct styles and colors—8, 12 and 16-button lengths and wrist lengths.

White, black, tan and darker shades in fall suit colors are all very much favored, with white, perhaps, in the lead.

That we are again able to maintain ALL our many lines of ROECKL'S Kid Gloves, complete in color, size and style range is evidence of the very complete Glove service we render.

Not merely in "completeness," however, are the stocks of Richmond's Glove Store notable. But from many years of experience of testing and of elimination, we are able to present ROECKL'S—the Glove of sterling durability, correct proportions and sound workmanship; also at their original moderate prices!

Miller & Rhoads.

GERMAN GLOVES RECEIVED

First Consignment to Reach Here Since Declaration of War. The first consignment of gloves to reach here since the declaration of war was a consignment of gloves to the Glove Store of Richmond, which was received yesterday. The consignment was made by the Glove Store of Richmond, which was received yesterday. The consignment was made by the Glove Store of Richmond, which was received yesterday.

Note.—The above article, clipped from yesterday's Times-Dispatch, evidently referred to this particular shipment of Roeckl's Gloves.

Roeckl's Gloves are manufactured in Munich, Germany, under the most ideal conditions, and are shipped directly to Miller & Rhoads.

Hundreds and hundreds of our patrons, who invariably demand THE BEST Gloves, will welcome this announcement that not even war can interrupt the splendid service of RICHMOND'S GLOVE STORE!

TRAINING COURSE FOR NURSES OF RICHMOND

Medical College of Virginia Throws Open Classes to All Hospitals in the City.

WORK IS NOW UNDER WAY

Matriculation at Consolidated College Is Heavy, 113 Students Entering Names Second Day After Opening—Enrollment Now 428.

Nurses in the local hospitals are to be given the benefit of a regular training course at the Medical College of Virginia without cost to themselves or to the institutions at which they are receiving instruction. The course was designed primarily for the nurses at the Memorial and Virginia Hospitals, which are under the supervision of the college, but it has been decided to throw the classes open to all nurses in the city, according to an announcement made yesterday.

The newly organized class will have the benefit of a compact and well-balanced faculty and its curriculum is modeled after the best standards in medical education. The college formerly gave a series of lectures, but the present course is more comprehensive, as will be done in the future, the object being to make the Medical College of Virginia the center of training for the nurses of the city, but of the State.

Class work in the big consolidated college has started, and the regular schedule is being followed. Examinations for special students, and those who are attempting the course in part, will be held for the first time in the school of pharmacy, until October 6.

The matriculation yesterday, the second day after the opening of the college, was very heavy. With 315 matriculates on Tuesday, the number of students now enrolled is 428, which is more than the full number of the school of pharmacy.

There are now registered in the school of medicine, 314 students, divided as follows: first year, 22; second year, 91; third year, 62; fourth year, 39; special, 40.

In the school of dentistry there are sixty-three registrations as follows: first year, 22; second year, 11; third year, 18; special, 1.

The school of pharmacy has fifty-one students as follows: first year, 31; second year, 16; special, 4.

Believed to Be Escaped Convict. Deek Fritz, colored, said to be an escaped convict from the State of North Carolina, was yesterday arrested by Patrolman Harris, of the Second Precinct. The man was on crutches when Patrolman Harris placed him under arrest, and is said to be suffering from gunshot wounds inflicted by guards when he made his escape.

Manchist Arrested. Walter Loving, a Manchist, was yesterday afternoon arrested by Police Sergeant R. E. Brown and Patrolman Duffy, charged with being disorderly on the streets and making an assault on Mrs. Annie Clive.

Kidnaping Charge. James Hill, colored, was last night arrested on a warrant charging him with kidnaping and secreting Elizabeth Hill, a child, who is legally in the custody of Carrie Lyness. Police Sergeant Sheppard made the arrest.

Grants Pardon. After serving five months of the six months term for which he was sentenced by a Norfolk County magistrate on a charge of theft, Cameron Parsons, whose previous reputation was good, is to be released from the Norfolk County Jail. Governor Stuart yesterday granted Parsons a conditional pardon.

Exonerated. A man who had been charged with the murder of a woman, was yesterday acquitted by a jury. The man was charged with the murder of a woman, who was found dead in a rooming house. The man was charged with the murder of a woman, who was found dead in a rooming house.

Each Fined $5. Dr. L. H. Lelon and Samuel Greenbaum were each fined $5 and costs in Police Court yesterday on a charge of fighting in the street. Justice Crutchfield fined both because he was unable to decide who had started the trouble. Greenbaum was arrested on a warrant sworn out by the physician. Both paid their fines.

Quarrel Between Men. A quarrel between two men resulted in a fight in the street. The men were fighting in the street, and the fight was broken up by the police. The men were fighting in the street, and the fight was broken up by the police.

Speeding. W. J. Sullivan was yesterday fined $100 and costs by Justice Crutchfield for speeding on a charge of speeding his automobile along Franklin Street at the rate of fifty-five miles an hour. He appeared.

FEAST OF ROSH HASHANAH BEGINS SUNDAY EVENING

Jewish New Year Day Inaugurates Most Solemn Season of Religious Calendar.

SERVICES AT BETH ABABAH

Observance Will Continue Until Sunday on Monday, While Those of Orthodox Faith Will Celebrate Two Days—Opens Year of 5675.

The feast of Rosh Hashanah, or New Year Day, which inaugurates the most solemn season of the Jewish religious year, begins this year on Sunday evening, September 20, and continues to Sunday on Monday, September 21. Among Orthodox Jews, who celebrate two days, the following day, Tuesday, is also observed. This day opens the Jewish calendar year, which is 5675.

At Beth Ababah Synagogue the services will begin on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Rabbi E. N. Calisch will conduct and preach at both services. The subject of his sermon for Sunday evening will be "Out of Date," and for Monday morning, "The Inspiration of Love."

FEAST FALLS ON FIRST DAY OF SEVENTH MONTH. The choir will render the traditional melodies and some additional music prepared especially for the day. The members of the choir are Messdames Ripper and Whitte and Messrs. Bryant and Whitte. Professor Jacob Reishus is the organist.

The feast falls upon the first day of the seventh month, or the day of the new moon of that month, and is invested with peculiar significance. And, according to ancient writ, no service work, no gainful occupation was to be followed. The blowing of the shofar, the trumpet, a chief circumstance of the feast, is to arouse the people to their shortcomings and to their duties in which they may have failed. Hence, on this occasion, the day is called "The Day of Memorial."

Another idea which is held to be associated with the day was that on this day God weighed men's actions in the scale of justice, and for this reason another designation of the day is, "The Day of Judgment." The days intervening between New Year's Day and the Day of Atonement are called "The Ten Days of Penitence," during which the opportunity is had to reflect finally on and to repent the wrongs done during the year. If the repentance is sincere forgiveness is gained on the Day of Atonement.

The New Year's Day, in the passing of centuries, has thus come to embody the great religious ideas of divine justice and human responsibility. As the beginning of the Jewish religious year it emphasizes the religious uniqueness of the Jewish people, the servant of God and the priest people of humanity.

Hearing Goes Over. The case against William Neighbors, colored, charged with assaulting Walter Cunningham with a hatchet at Kingan & Co's plant, was yesterday continued until September 25 by Police Justice Crutchfield. Cunningham said to be in a serious condition at the Colored City Home.

Wireless Messages For Europe. Messages for Germany and Austria, for transmission by wireless via the Tuckerton, N. J., station, will be accepted by the Western Union Telegraph Company, subject to certain restrictions. This announcement was made yesterday by W. G. Sale, local manager for the company.

Arrested in Station. Negro With Stab Wounds Seeks Aid. When William Henderson, colored, hobbled into the First Precinct Station last night seeking medical attention for several gaping wounds he "just naturally dared on to arrest him" as he later explained to the police. Patrolman Duffy was one of the first of the men on duty to see him, and at once recognized the man as being wanted on a couple of warrants.

Nothing was said until Ambulance surgeon Walker had treated him and he was ready to be taken to the hospital. He was placed under arrest on warrants charging him with assaulting and threatening Lizzie Carter and with stealing a coat.

A few minutes later Patrolman Duffy with Rector, Policeman W. E. Clarke went in search of James Anderson, colored, who is alleged to have sliced Henderson with a knife. They succeeded in locating the man, and he was also locked up.

Thief Sent to Jail. Lloyd Arnold was yesterday convicted of the theft of $27.50 from the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, and sentenced to sixty days in jail by Police Justice Crutchfield.

In Police Court. William Perry and Lawrence Terrell, colored, were each fined $5 and costs in Police Court yesterday when arraigned on a charge of being disorderly and fighting in the street.

Nellie Mosby and Josh Henderson, both colored, were fined $5 and costs when arraigned on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

ADDRESS IN FULL MUST BE PUT ON POSTCARDS

Such Matter, When Mailed in Large Quantities, Won't Have Benefit of Directory System.

APPLIES TO ALL ADVERTISERS

Order Just Issued by Post-Office Department Means That Large Part of This Form of Exploitation Will Not Reach Destination.

Under orders received yesterday from Washington, Postmaster Hay T. Thornton has issued instructions that post or postal cards, minus street and house address, when mailed in large quantities, are not to receive the benefit of the post office directory system, but are to be put in the general delivery, which will mean that the larger part of this advertising matter will fail to reach the addressee.

The order, which was operative yesterday, has been placed in effect in every office in the United States. In a communication to Postmaster Thornton, the following explanation of the order is given by the Post-Office Department.

SOME WANT POST-OFFICE

TO COMPLETE ADDRESSES. "There appears to be a growing tendency on the part of advertisers, public utility corporations and other patrons to omit street and house addresses on postal cards and postal cards. When mailed in large quantities, or habitually mailed by the same person or firm, with the evident expectation of having the post-office complete the address, the cards should not be given the directory service, but should be placed in the general delivery."

Assistant Postmaster W. Ross Southward said that the order, while not directly applicable to Richmond, would have a good effect here, as the custom is a growing one for advertisers to omit the street and house address, and, while it was not causing particular trouble here as yet, at times it did completely tie up the office employees whose duty it is to look up defective addresses. In his opinion, it was an excellent stroke to nip the practice in the bud.

By placing the improperly addressed matter in the general delivery, it will lay there for many days without being called for, and will then be sent back to the sender, or forwarded to the dead letter office. Where a few cards are mailed in this manner, there being no evident intention to take advantage of the government, the address searchers will on their best to locate the addresses.

ACCEPTS INVITATION

Governor Stuart Will Attend Week-End Game. Governor Stuart yesterday announced that he would accept the invitation of the directors of the M. S. Schenck County Fair and the people of the county to visit the fair grounds in Chase City, on October 1.

The Governor will be accompanied on the trip by a party of members of his staff. Governor Lock's wife, of North Carolina, with his staff, will also be there. It has been arranged by the managers of the fair to have the Governor and his party arrive at Chase City on the morning of the opening of the fair.

A special program has been arranged for the Governor's visit, which will include the big feature of the agricultural, mechanical and industrial show.

NO DECLINE IS NOTICED IN CUSTOMS RECEIPTS

Richmond Holds Distinction of Being One of Few Ports Showing No Falling Off.

COLLECTIONS SO FAR INCREASE

During Fifteen Days This Month Nearly $12,000 Has Been Received—Imports Come From England, France and Germany.

Richmond continues to hold the enviable distinction of being one of the few ports, and probably the only $1,000,000 port in the United States, to have its customs receipts equal those of the corresponding period of 1913. In spite of the European war situation, which has practically cut the belligerent nations off from commerce with this country, and has played havoc with the customs collections of the large ports of entry, Richmond imports continue on par with those of the previous year, and, in fact, exceed them in a total for the ten weeks of the fiscal year.

During the fifteen days of this month, there has been collected in the office of Deputy Collector Gay Smith, the sum of $11,882.27, which, when compared with $8,747.25 for the month of September, 1913, shows how well the receipts are holding up under the war conditions. During July of this year, the collections over the corresponding period of 1913 show an increase of $16,212.24, and in August the increase was $12,920.46, or $25,000 in all. So far, the collections for the fiscal year show an increase of more than $21,000 over the corresponding period of 1913.

While the conditions are peculiar here, in that tobacco, which forms the largest single import, is stored in bond in New York, and then sent here months after being shipped from Europe, this fact is not responsible for the large amount of business in September, as articles from England, France and Germany were received last week, and form the bulk of the collections. Cloves, of which Richmond is the largest importing center in America, was responsible for a large amount, while shipments of cloth from England and gloves from Germany added to the total. These imports came directly from Europe, without interruption, although somewhat delayed in transit.

It is said that Greenbaum went to Leon for medical treatment and that the quarrel between the men grew out of a controversy over the settlement of the account. Leon exhibited a pair of broken spectacles, which he said had been smashed by Greenbaum during the fight which took place on Broad Street.

IMPORTANT DECISION ON SEGREGATION LAW

Held That Ordinance Does Not Apply to Fifth Street, Between Leigh and Duval.

CRUTCHFIELD GIVES OPINION

Test Case Resulted From Arrest of Colored Lawyer, Who Is Dismissed After City Attorney Passes Upon Matter.

The segregation ordinance does not apply to Fifth Street between Leigh and Duval Streets, and negroes may establish residences there without fear of being haled into court for alleged violations of the present segregation ordinance. This decision was rendered in Police Court yesterday by Justice Crutchfield, who acted on a written opinion of the City Attorney.

The test case, which resulted in the decision, was that of G. W. Lewis, a negro attorney, who purchased and occupied the house at 612 North Fifth Street. He was haled into court by Patrolman Schief, on a charge of violating the segregation ordinance, which prohibits negroes moving into a block where whites predominate. Lewis was acquitted.

JACKSON STREET DOES NOT CROSS FIFTH STREET. City Attorney Pollard, in his communication to Justice Crutchfield, said: "In reply to your request to inform you whether the blocks on North Fifth Street, between Leigh and Duval Streets, are white or colored, should be determined, I have to say that inasmuch as Jackson Street does not intersect, that is, cross Fifth Street, that the residences on both sides of Fifth Street, from Leigh to Duval Streets, must be counted as if Jackson Street did not abut on the west side of Fifth Street."

According to the evidence offered in court yesterday, the majority of the families living on the block in question are negroes. Lewis was, therefore, declared justified in moving into the house he had purchased.

There is now an ordinance pending before the City Council, which is intended to prevent the sale of Immanuel Baptist Church, in which it is provided that where a street abuts on another it shall be considered an intersecting street, for purposes of segregation. Unless this ordinance is passed, however, before the sale of the church is consummated, it will be valueless in this instance, as the ordinance cannot be retroactive.

GANS-RADY COMPANY

PIPER ROOFING COMPANY IN HANDS OF RECEIVERS

Court Names C. L. Williams and Frank G. Louthan to Take Charge of Business.

BONDS OF $25,000 REQUIRED

Stringency of Money Market Cause for Temporary Embarrassment, and Relief Is Asked—Assets of $87,000 and Liabilities $41,000.

Assigning the stringency of the money market as the cause of its temporary embarrassment, the Piper Roofing and Manufacturing Company, Inc., applied yesterday to the Law and Equity Court for the appointment of receivers to take charge of its affairs for the protection of the creditors. The court appointed as receivers C. L. Williams and Frank G. Louthan, naming each to give bond in the sum of $25,000.

The receivership was asked for in a bill filed by the roofing company bringing technical suit against the Richmond Trust and Savings Company, the chief creditor. It is stated that none of the creditors is pressing for a settlement, and that the Richmond Trust and Savings Company was named as a defendant in the action merely as a matter of convenience.

COMPANY ASKED FOR RELIEF. A statement of the roofing company's condition, which is embodied in the bill filed yesterday in the Law and Equity Court shows the affairs of the company to be in a state of complete collapse, according to this statement, has assets totaling $87,000, with liabilities amounting to $41,000.

It is set forth that the Piper Roofing and Manufacturing Company, Inc., is a Virginia corporation, having its main office in Richmond, and branches in Durham, N. C., and Greenville, S. C. According to the company's statement it has partially completed contracts valued at $68,520.26, which, because of the money stringency and tightness of the financial market, it is unable to complete on time.

The realizable profits from these contracts, according to the statement, would be more than enough to wipe out the outstanding indebtedness of $41,000. The company, it is stated, has invested in the partially completed contracts about $100,000, and has not realized upon unless the contracts are promptly completed.

IN CHARGE OF BUSINESS. Confronted with this situation the stockholders of the company, at a meeting held last Monday, authorized the Piper Roofing and Manufacturing Company, Inc., to apply to the Law and Equity Court for the appointment of receivers who shall take charge of the business of the company, and administer its affairs for the benefit of the stockholders and creditors.

Furtherance of this decision the company requested the court to appoint receivers to apply to the Law and Equity Court for the appointment of receivers who shall take charge of the business of the company, and administer its affairs for the benefit of the stockholders and creditors.

The Piper Roofing and Manufacturing Company does a general roofing business through the South, and is reported to be in a state of complete collapse, and its affairs appear to be in a state of complete collapse, and its affairs appear to be in a state of complete collapse.

TO USE MOTOR TRUCKS FOR STREET CLEANING

Administrative Board Places Order for Two Machines, Which Will Cost $2,000.

The Administrative Board awarded yesterday to the Eastern Motor Sales Corporation a contract for two motor trucks, to be used in the Street Cleaning Department. The trucks will cost $2,000 each, and will be employed in hauling refuse to the crematoriums and dumps from collection stations which are located on the streets of the city. The trucks will be used in the Street Cleaning Department, and will be employed in hauling refuse to the crematoriums and dumps from collection stations which are located on the streets of the city.

Dr. F. M. Reade, of the newly-elected staff of the Virginia Hospital, reported to the board that at its last meeting, held yesterday, the visiting staff elected Dr. Garnett Nelson, chairman, and Dr. E. M. Reade, secretary. The staff suggested that, owing to the many details that remain to be worked out, it would be better to defer until after October 1 the date upon which the new staff shall take office. The recommendation was approved by the board.

A petition was presented to the board from merchants on Broad Street, who requested that the work of smooth-nailing Broad Street westward from Jefferson Street be rushed in order to prevent the work of smooth-nailing from being interrupted by the city engineer, with instructions that the work be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

BALTIMORE'S PROTEST MAILED TO RICHMOND

Federal Reserve Board Sends Copy of Brief to Fifth Regional Bank.

LITTLE FEAR OF OUTCOME

Will Organize Local Institution Before Passing on Claim of Maryland City—Operation of System Promised Early in October.

The Federal Reserve Board yesterday mailed to the Fifth Regional Reserve Bank organization in this city a copy of the brief filed before that body recently by the city of Baltimore protesting against the proposed establishment of the whole system of twelve banks is promised for the early part of October. Baltimore has no real touch with the situation that a decision will not be reached in any of the contest cases before late in October or possibly November.

A member of the Federal Reserve Board stated yesterday that if oral arguments are granted in the case of each protest it will require a month to hear all the cases. Baltimore, it is understood, has not filed a request to be permitted to argue its cause orally. It does so, however, it will undoubtedly be granted. In such an event, Richmond would be given an opportunity to be represented by counsel at its hearings.

Little fear is expressed in this city as to the outcome of Baltimore's protest. The Maryland City, which is the evidence to offer, and its brief was carefully considered in connection with the arguments presented by Richmond when the organization committee held its hearings.

BANKERS MEET TO-NIGHT

Committee Busy Preparing for Its Convention Next Month.

For the purpose of hearing reports from chairman of the various subcommittees a meeting of the administrative committee of the American Bankers Association, held in the city of Baltimore, will be held to-night at 8 o'clock at the Commonwealth Club.

A full attendance at the meeting is desired as little time now remains before the date of what will be the most important convention of the association ever held in Richmond. Reports from the committee indicate that plans for the gathering are rapidly maturing, and that with a continuance of the cooperative spirit which is being shown by Richmond people the event will prove a memorable success.

Reports Theft of Watches. Police of the Second Station were last night asked to aid in recovering two gold watches, which are reported as having been stolen. Miss S. L. Taylor, of the Soldiers' Home, reported that her room had been entered and a watch, set with five small diamonds had been stolen. Frank Orgain, of North Laurel Street, also reported the loss of a timepiece.

Woman Convicted. Rosa Randolph, colored, was yesterday fined $50 and costs by Justice Crutchfield on a charge of maintaining a disorderly house. The arrest was made by Patrolman Harris, who also charged Randolph with disorderly conduct. They were each fined $20 and costs of this charge.
